

Cornucopia of Delights

Tsim Sha Tsui

Tsim Sha Tsui is a tourist's dream come true, offering everything visitors need for a trip of a lifetime. It is home to a variety of chic restaurants offering a huge range of international cuisines, plenty of large modern shopping malls, historic buildings, fascinating museums and the Hong Kong Cultural Centre. The scenic waterfront promenade offers some of the best views of Victoria Harbour and the mesmerising Hong Kong skyline.

Tsim Sha Tsui Walking Map

圖例 Legend

-  路線起點
Start of Walk
-  路線
Route
-  港鐵站出入口
MTR Station Entrance
-  人行隧道
Pedestrian Tunnel
-  香港旅遊發展局
旅客諮詢及服務中心
Hong Kong Tourism Board Visitor
Information & Services Centre

 → MTR Jordan Station Exit D, turn left, walk along Nathan Road and turn left into Hillwood Road.

1 Hillwood Soho 山林道蘇豪區

Hillwood Soho in Tsim Sha Tsui is a hangout favoured by locals, with a fun collection of bars and a selection of restaurants featuring Asian cuisine.

Relax in a cosy bar.

 → Walk down the steps at the end of Hillwood Road, turn right and walk along Austin Avenue and Kimberley Road, stay on the right and then turn right into Observatory Road. At Knutsford Terrace, turn left.

Alfresco dining at its best at Knutsford Terrace and Knutsford Steps.

2 Knutsford Terrace / Knutsford Steps

諾士佛台 / 諾士佛階

Featuring a wide variety of exotic cuisine, this hotbed of international culinary delights offers something for virtually every palate. It is truly a smorgasbord of taste treats. Befitting an international eating mecca, this district is packed with people savouring the culinary delights that Hong Kong has to offer.

 → Walk along Knutsford Terrace and turn left and then right along Kimberley Road. Walk to the end of the street and turn right.

3 Former Kowloon British School

前九龍英童學校

This architectural gem is the oldest surviving school building constructed for foreign residents of Hong Kong. The school was opened in 1902. The building is a unique Victorian structure adapted to local climate conditions with wide verandas, high ceilings and a pitched roof. Today it houses the Antiquities and Monuments Office.

 → St Andrew's Church stands next to the Former Kowloon British School.

4 St Andrew's Church 聖安德烈堂

This Anglican church has had a rich and varied history, featuring a strong evangelical tradition for the past 100 years. Early worshippers would arrive by the main means of transportation of the day – rickshaws, cabs and sedan chairs! Accounts of the time reported that, "It was a great occasion for many Christians in Kowloon and their friends in Hong Kong."

 → Cross Nathan Road to Park Lane Shopper's Boulevard.

5 Park Lane Shopper's Boulevard 栢麗購物大道

Bustling with shoppers day and night, this distinctive shopping mall offers a variety of local and international brand-name stores. Open 10am - 11:30pm daily.

Find international brands that appeal.

→ Go inside Kowloon Park from the entrance next to the Mosque. Follow the signs to the Hong Kong Heritage Discovery Centre.

6 Hong Kong Heritage Discovery Centre 香港文物探知館

Part of what used to be the British Army's Whitfield Barracks, the Hong Kong Heritage Discovery Centre consists of two blocks of buildings constructed circa 1910. It served as the temporary home of the Hong Kong Museum of History from 1983-1998. The Hong Kong Heritage Discovery Centre includes a Thematic Exhibition Gallery, Lecture Hall, Reference Library and Activity Room that are open to the public. Open 10am - 6pm from Monday to Saturday (closed Thursday). 10am - 7pm on Sunday and public holidays. Enquiry: 2208 4400.

→ Follow the original route to leave Kowloon Park. Walk along Nathan Road towards the waterfront. Enter at MTR East Tsim Sha Tsui Station Exit L3, go through the pedestrian tunnel to Exit J, and follow the directional signs to the Avenue of Stars.

7 Avenue of Stars 星光大道

At Asia's first Avenue of Stars, you can see plaques, hand prints and statues honouring celebrities from the silver screen, and those behind the camera. The latest addition is a bronze statue of the legendary kung-fu action star Bruce Lee. Find out all you need to know about the 100-year development of this Hollywood of Asia and enjoy the star-studded harbour views.

Find your favourite Hong Kong star:

#18

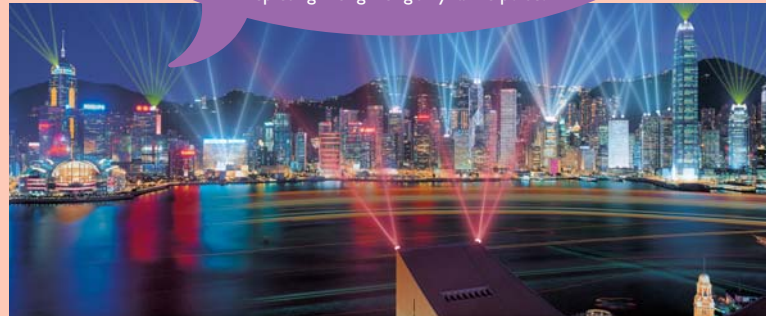

→ Walk back along the promenade to the Hong Kong Museum of Art, the Hong Kong Space Museum and the Hong Kong Cultural Centre.

Did you know...

You can enjoy A Symphony of Lights along the Avenue of Stars every night at 8pm. This spectacular multimedia show, named the world's largest permanent light and sound show by Guinness World Records, combines lights and narration while featuring more than 40 buildings on both sides of Victoria Harbour.

The facades of buildings are decked out in lights that, at the flick of a switch, glow in a myriad of colours depicting Hong Kong's dynamic pulse.

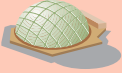

8 Hong Kong Museum of Art 香港藝術館

Discover the beauty of Chinese antiquities, fine art and calligraphy at the Hong Kong Museum of Art, open 10am - 6pm, Monday to Wednesday, Friday, Sunday and public holidays; 10am - 8pm on Saturday; closed on Thursday. Enquiry: 2721 0116.

Hong Kong Space Museum 香港太空館

Explore the final frontier at The Hong Kong Space Museum with its Omnimax and Sky shows and astronomy exhibits, open 1pm - 9pm, Monday and Wednesday to Friday; 10am - 9pm, Saturday, Sunday and public holidays. Enquiry: 2721 0226.

Hong Kong Cultural Centre 香港文化中心

Experience classic performing arts, both Western and Asian, at the Hong Kong Cultural Centre.

→ Near the end of the promenade, you'll see the Clock Tower.

9 Clock Tower 前九廣鐵路鐘樓

Part of the original Kowloon-Canton Railway terminus, the Clock Tower was completed and came into operation in 1921. This is a landmark from the Age of Steam, a time when people spent days travelling across Europe and Asia to the terminus.

→ Walk to Harbour City, across from the Star Ferry Pier.

10 Harbour City 海港城

This is one of the largest shopping and entertainment centres in Hong Kong with more than 700 shops and restaurants offering local and international brands. Open daily, 10am - 9pm.

Everything you could want is available under one roof at Harbour City.

Did you know... ?

At the Star Ferry Pier you'll find the HKTB Visitor Information & Services Centre where you can get the answer to any question you might have about Hong Kong.

For information about Hong Kong Mobile Host audio commentaries, please refer to page 1.