Tokyo: Gourmet City

Tokyo boasts a diverse dining scene with traditional and modern Japanese dishes, as well as culinary delights from all over the world!

From street food to Michelin starred restaurants offering classic Japanese, French and Italian cuisine, Tokyo has it all! Discover a vast array of delicious delights in one of the most exciting dining destinations in the world.

Tempura

Seafood and vegetables dipped in batter and deep-fried in vegetable oil.

Sukiyaki

Thinly sliced beef and vegetables sautéed and seasoned with sake, soy sauce and sugar.

Sushi

Enjoy it on the counter of a sushi restaurant or at a conveyer-belt sushi place (kaiten-zushi).

Soba

Traditional buckwheat noodles, delicious in hot soup or cold with dipping sauce.

Freshwater eel

Sizzling grilled after light steam is the “Edo-mae” style of old Tokyo.

Izakaya

Taverns offering all kinds of home-style cooking; best enjoyed with your drink of choice.

Ramen

Another noodle dish where the soup and the toppings vary greatly from shop to shop.

World's Cuisines

French, Italian, Chinese – or anything else you might imagine. You can enjoy it all in Tokyo!

Confectionery

The widest choice available – from traditional wagashi to the world's latest trends in desserts.

Tokyo's Stellar Restaurants

In its September 2015 issue, the American magazine “Savour” gave its World's Best Food City Award to Tokyo. Also, the metropolis has the most Michelin Guide starred restaurants in the world.

Special half-day and full-day Sightseeing Route in Tokyo

Tokyo consists of many unique towns. There are itineraries with only select spots in Tokyo including traditional tourist facilities and places to enjoy good food.

“Two Ultimate Half-Day Sightseeing Routes in Tokyo”

Route Guide ①

Nihonbashi

Near Nihonbashi, which is the starting point of the Japanese roadway network, there are department stores such as Mitsukoshi, Takashimaya and COREDO Muromachi.

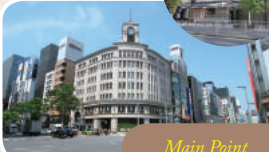

Nihonbashi Station → Tokyo Metro Ginza Line (about 3 min., ¥170) → Ginza Station

Main Point

There is a boat dock at the bridge where visitors can take various boat rides.

Ginza

Main Point

The Wako Clock Tower that stands at the Ginza Yon-chome intersection is a symbolic landmark of Ginza.

Here are many department stores such as Matsuya and Mitsukoshi as well as Japanese and foreign brand shops, well-established Japanese accessory and sweets shops, and famous shops that masterfully make their products with skills that have been passed down the generations.

Dinner
in
Ginza

Main Point

Tsukiji, which is only a short walk from Ginza, is the largest wholesale market in the world. Eating dishes prepared with fresh seafood is one way to enjoy your dinner.

Ginza, which was once the main source for Western culture, still retains its historic establishments such as its old Western restaurants and cafes. There are also many high-class restaurants and sushi bars here.

Route Guide ②

TOKYO SKYTREE TOWN®

This is a new commercial complex centered around TOKYO SKYTREE®. Find retail heaven at Tokyo Solamachi® as well as entertainment facilities, an aquarium, and sky view decks that are the highest in Japan.

Main Point

On a clear day, you can see as far as 70 kilometers away from the First Observatory.

TOKYO SKYTREE Station
→ Toei Skytree Line
(about 3 min., ¥150) →
Asakusa Station
©TOKYO-SKYTREE

Sensoji Temple

Main Point

Traveling by rickshaw is recommended for those who want the complete Asakusa experience.

This is the oldest temple in Tokyo and the symbol of Asakusa. After crossing Kaminarimon Gate and walking through Nakamise Street, which is lined with about ninety shops, you will reach the Main Hall, where the statue of the holy Buddha of compassion is enshrined.

Lunch
in Asakusa

Main Point

There are many old established shops that offer confectionaries and Japanese sweets around Sensoji Temple.

Traditional Tokyo-style dishes are recommended if you decide to have lunch in Asakusa. There are plenty of famous and old established shops that serve sushi, tempura, soba noodles, monjayaki and more.

"A One-day Trip Through Tokyo on the Yamanote Line"

Route Guide ③

Enjoy sightseeing in Tokyo with the Yamanote Line, which is the main transportation artery of the city of Tokyo. Visit imposing landmarks such as the Tokyo Tower and the Imperial Palace, and stop by huge entertainment districts like Shibuya and Shinjuku.

START Hamamatsucho Station

▼ Walk (15 min.)

Tokyo Tower

▼ Walk (15 min.)

Hamamatsucho Station

▼ JR Yamanote Line (6 min., ¥160)

Tokyo Station

▼ Walk (15 min.)

Imperial Palace

[Lunch] Around Tokyo Station

Tokyo Station

▼ JR Yamanote Line (24 min., ¥200)

Shibuya Station

Shibuya-Omotesando-Harajuku

(travel on foot)

Harajuku Station

▼ JR Yamanote Line (4 min., ¥140)

Shinjuku Station

Shinjuku Area (dinner)

9:00 Tokyo Tower

Ever since its opening in 1958, it has been adored as the landmark of Tokyo. The Special Observatory is located at a height of 250 meters.

Main Point

It is a good idea to enjoy the observation decks in the morning as they are open from 9 o'clock and not so crowded at that time.

Main Point

Imperial Detached Court and East Gardens of the Imperial Palace both have grass lawns that are good relaxing spots.

11:00 Imperial Palace

Good spots to visit are the Kokyo Gaien National Garden at the Imperial Palace Plaza, which commands a view of the Double Bridge (Main Gate Stone Bridge), and the East Gardens of the Imperial Palace, where relics such as the keep of the Edo Castle still remain.

Lunch
Around Tokyo
Station

Main Point

You can enjoy the ramen noodles at the Tokyo Ramen Street located inside Tokyo Station.

There are many restaurants in the commercial buildings on the Marunouchi side such as the Marunouchi Bldg. and the Shin-Marunouchi Bldg. Locations on the Yaesu side such as the Yaesu Underground Shopping Center and Granroof are dotted with shops.

Main Point

The area is full of popular shops that specialize in pancakes.

19:00 Shinjuku (dinner)

Main Point

Enjoy a breath-taking view of Shinjuku for free at the observation decks of the Tokyo Metropolitan Government Building.

The west side of Shinjuku Station is lined with skyscrapers with restaurants on the upper floors that let you enjoy the night view while dining. The east side of Shinjuku Station is a large entertainment district where famous spots such as Kabukicho and the Golden Gai are located.

15:00 Shibuya-Omotesando-Harajuku

An area where you can find the latest trends in fashion, cafes, and sweets. It is a pleasant place to walk around while enjoying shopping and eating.

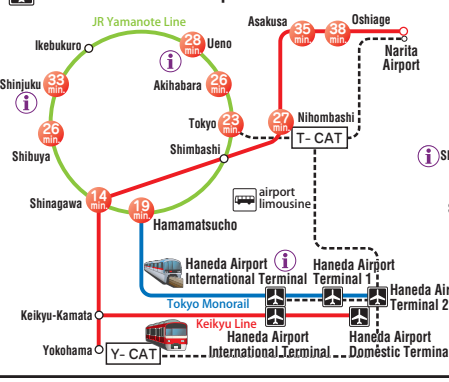

Search for numbered subway maps and transit information on the following websites.

A Half-day Tour by Tokyo Sakura Tram Visit Shitamachi in Tokyo and Experience the Traditional Atmosphere

Start with a
Toei Streetcar One-Day Pass!

Kishibojimmae Sta.
Near Tokyo Metro Fukutoshin Line
Zoshigaya Sta.

10:00
5 min walk
→ Kishimojindo Temple

1 Kishibojimmae

From the station, you will go through a street lined with keyaki (Japanese zelkova trees) and get to Kishimojindo Temple, where the goddess of safe birth and healthy child rearing, Kishimojin, is worshipped. Oicho, the huge ginkgo tree, which is said to be 700 years old, is quite a sight to see.

2 Higashi-ikebukuro-yonchome

10:30 Sunshine City

Ikebukuro's landmark, Sunshine City, is filled with fun!

4 min walk

Don't just look at the view, but experience the view at the hands-on observatory at Sunshine 60 Observatory!

Witness adorable penguins flying over your head at Sunshine Aquarium!

Get souvenirs that capture your fancy at the popular Pokémon Center Mega Tokyo.

SA 29 Omokagebashi
Around Takatobashi Bridge

Tokyo Sakura Tram (Toei Streetcar Arakawa Line) is the only Tokyo Toden (the former tram network of Tokyo) line remaining in service today. Get on the tram that has long been running through Tokyo's shitamachi (old downtown district) and see places that have been there for generations but which you have never yet seen.

3 Koshinzuka

3 min walk

12:30 Sugamo Jizou-dori Shopping Street

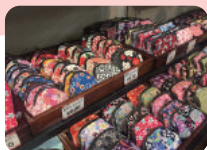

Referred to as "grandma's Harajuku," Sugamo is always filled with energetic elderly people. Festivals are held on days with a 4 every month. Walking around with a delicious sweet in your hand is part of the fun.

Tokyo Sakura Tram sometimes runs on the street along with automobiles. You can enjoy different views from those from a car or bus. The unique sound of the departure bell adds excitement to your short trip!

Kikutani Sugamo Main Store (buckwheat noodle restaurant)

A lunch set serves different kinds of soba noodles made with buckwheat varying in origin and blend. It is a highly recommended restaurant, which was chosen as a "Bib Gourmand" in Michelin Guide Tokyo 2016.

Sosaku Chirimen Fuyusha offers cute Japanese-style items made with silk chirimen fabric.

4 Arakawashakomae

A short walk

14:30 Cool Cafe

This quiet café in front of the tram station serves wonderful French toast with a surprisingly fluffy texture that you may not have experienced. Have a nice cup of tea or coffee looking at the trams running on the rail way.

At Toden Omoide Hiroba Square, memorable old Toden cars that used to run the streets are on display! (Open only from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays except for between December 29 and January 3)

The Electronics Area and Department Store Basement Food Floors of Shinjuku

Shinjuku station is surrounded by huge electronics stores such as Yamada Denki, Bic Camera, and Yodobashi Camera, which offer plenty of equipment such as PCs and electrical home appliances. With Odakyu Department Store and Keio Department Store at the West Exit along with other stores including Shinjuku Isetan at the East Exit and Shinjuku Takashimaya at the South Exit, the area surrounding the station is lined with huge department stores. Among some of the most popular spots are department store basement food floors, which offer food items, Japanese and Western sweets, prepared dishes, boxed lunches, and more. Many popular shops where eager customers are lined up appear one after another.

Touring the waterfront

Take a tour of the waterfront that was bustling with boats and fish markets during the Edo era.

The Nihonbashi River, where there were several locations for unloading cargo from across the country, was an important transportation passage during the Edo era. Here, you can enjoy reminiscing about the old scenery of those times on boat rides.

5 Nihonbashi Pier (Sojuro Riverbank)

Enjoy a ride on a small boat that crosses below a historic bridge while bringing back memories of the past. Experience whole new kinds of Tokyo scenery.

6 Yagenbori Fudoin Temple

One of the three great Fudo temples of Edo, said to have been built in 1585 and depicted in "Collection of Pictures of Noted Places in Edo".

The Ningyocho area

Mt. Takao is a 599-meter high mountain on the west side of Tokyo and attracts over 2.6 million visitors a year – with good reason! Not only does it have a number of different trails of varying difficulties and lengths, there are also many onsens (hot springs) in the area so hikers can rest their aching muscles after a long day on the trails. The area is also famous for its soba noodles and has several stellar restaurants both at the foot and near the summit of the mountain.

Yakuoin Temple was established on the mountain over 1,000 years ago and is famous for its fire walking festival. Visitors can enjoy special Buddhist shojin-ryori style vegetarian food here, if they make reservations in advance. The TRICK ART MUSEUM has optical illusions galore, perfect for fun and fascinating photos.

For those more interested in the science of Japan's nature, TAKAO 599 MUSEUM features the local flora and fauna and history, and hiking manners. Takao Monkey Park and The Wild Plant Garden features about 60 monkeys and about 300 kinds of native wildflowers.

Nikko

〈Tochigi〉

An international tourist destination where the World Heritage Site “Nikko Toshogu Shrine” is located

Nikko is a city where many historical structures stand, including Nikko Toshogu Shrine, which is a registered World Heritage Site. As it is known as the location that enshrines Ieyasu Tokugawa, who established his shogunate in Edo, and as a scenic site even abroad since the Meiji era, it soon became a popular international tourist destination.

Kawagoe

〈Saitama〉

Experience Japanese culture in “Little Edo”, where its historical landscape still remains

Kawagoe is a city that has many cultural properties following cities like Kamakura and Nikko, and has been recognized by the Japanese government as a Historic site. It is known as “Little Edo” as the streets are lined with warehouse-style structures, temples, and shrines, and has a townscape that resembles that which could be seen during the Edo era.

Mount Fuji

〈Yamanashi / Shizuoka〉

Mount Fuji, Japan’s sacred mountain, which was registered World Cultural Heritage Site in 2013. Since ancient times, Mount Fuji has been known both domestically and internationally as the symbol of Japan for its graceful shape, and is visited by many people each year who go to catch a glimpse of its beauty.

*Bus service is available from Shinjuku to Fuji Subaru Line 5th Sta.

Yokohama

〈Kanagawa〉

Where East Meets West

Yokohama, a port city south of Tokyo, is a historical city known to have opened Japan's doors to the world in 1859, after over 200 years of isolation. The city has since become famous for its fusion of eastern and western cultures and its beautiful ocean views. The Marine Tower offers a stunning bird's eye view of the bay and the Yokohama Red Brick Warehouse, a former port facility on the bay, now houses many stylish shops, cafes and restaurants. If you're craving a gourmet adventure, don't forget to wander through Motomachi Chukagai, Japan's largest Chinatown.

General Information for Tourists

Climate

There are four distinct seasons. Spring -March to May- and autumn -September to November- are comfortable. However, there are many rainy days (rainy season) from mid-June to July. In summer, it is hot during the day and humid at night. In winter, there are many clear days but it is often cold and dry.

Currency exchange, changing money

As of August 25, 2017, US$1=¥109.67
Money can be exchanged at currency exchange counters located mainly at banks, post offices, hotels and airports.

World Currency Shops

(Exchange of foreign currency)

WEB www.tokyo-card.co.jp/wcs/wcs-shop-e.php

Postal services

Mail can be sent from Japan to abroad at the post office. Postcards and letters can be left at the front desk of your hotel or dropped in a post box on the street or at a tourist site. All postcards cost ¥70. Letters vary from ¥90 to ¥130, depending on the destination.

Smoking

Although smoking is prohibited in most public facilities as a general rule, there are some facilities with smoking areas. Smoking is prohibited when specified in the streets of downtown areas, shops, restaurants, etc.

Consumption tax

Consumption tax at shops, restaurants, etc. is 8%. Please note whether the tax is included in the indicated price depends on the shop and product.

Tax-free system

The requirement for tax exemption is the purchase of general goods (electric appliances, clothing, accessories, etc.) worth over 5,000 yen at the same shop on the same day by the same person. For consumable goods (food, drinks, medicine, cosmetics, etc.), tax exemption applies for purchases above 5,000 yen but below 500,000 yen at the same shop on the same day by the same person. Please see the Japan Tourism Agency website for details.
